

Hospice Foundation of America
15th Annual Living With Grief[®] Teleconference

Live-via satellite and webcast

Living With Grief*[®] :
Children and Adolescents
Wednesday, April 16, 2008
1:30 – 4:00 p.m. EDT

HFA's 2008 Teleconference will focus on the experience of grieving children and adolescents and the ways that all hospice professionals, educators and counselors, parents, social workers, physicians, grief counselors, funeral directors, and clergy can best support these populations as they cope with loss and grief. The program and accompanying book written by child and adolescent grief experts will examine the newest theories and practices, and as always, will combine academic research with hands-on ideas for use in hospice support groups and other settings.

Moderator:

Frank Sesno, Professor of Media and Public Affairs at
The George Washington University and Special Correspondent with CNN

Fee: $25 (includes program materials). Additional fees are applicable for those participants wishing online continuing education contact hours/credits (CEs). Please refer to NOTE below.
